A WINNING COMBINATION

ALLAN H. "BUD" SELIG

President
Chief Executive Officer

HARRY DALTON

Executive Vice President
General Manager

It was no coincidence that the Milwaukee Brewers' success the past two seasons occurred when Allan H. "Bud" Selig and Harry Dalton joined forces, giving the organization a winning combination right at the top.

Selig, a Milwaukee native who graduated from Milwaukee Washington High School and the University of Wisconsin — Madison, has seen his hard work and patience pay off the past two seasons, after having been one of the main people responsible for bringing major league baseball back to Milwaukee in 1970.

Selig began turning things around when he signed Sal Bando and Larry Hisle in the Re-Entry Draft, adding not only talented players, but outstanding individuals, who provided needed leadership on the field. He made one of his biggest decisions on November 20, 1977, when he named Harry Dalton Executive Vice President-General Manager, the only man to hold that title with the organization.

Dalton hired George Bamberger away from the Baltimore Orioles, where Bambi had earned the reputation as one of baseball's finest pitching coaches, and the Brewers finished in third place with a 93-69 record, one of the surprise teams in baseball. Selig's moves paid off and he earned "Major League Executive of the Year" honors from the UPI and the Milwaukee scribes for his efforts after the '78 campaign.

On the other end, Dalton has seen the Brewers compile the fourth best mark in baseball (188-135, .582) in his first two seasons at the helm. He has been responsible for the important addition of players like Gorman Thomas, the 1979 Home Run Champion, Ben Oglivie, Jim Slaton and Buck Martinez, all people who had their finest hours last season.

A former Major League Executive award winner himself (in 1970), Dalton watched the Orioles win four pennants and two world titles from 1966-71 when he was Vice President of Player Personnel in Baltimore. Dalton was responsible for acquiring Frank Robinson, Mike Cuellar, Pat Dobson and Don Buford while with the O's. While serving as Executive Vice President-General Manager of the California Angels from 1971-77, Dalton acquired All-Stars Nolan Ryan and Bobby Bonds and signed free agents Don Baylor (the 1979 AL MVP), Bobby Grich and Joe Rudi.

The Brewers finished second with a 95-66 mark last season, and 1980 could be the pinnacle of success for both Selig and Dalton, proving that Milwaukee has one of the winningest combinations both on and off the field.

Still getting socked with a service charge?

The Marine Bank Flagship Account gives you no service charge checking and more.

The best way to fight those monthly service charges on your checking account is to open a money saving Flagship Account at the Marine.

When you maintain a $500 balance in savings and qualify, you'll get no service charge checking, and, four of the most important banking services you need, all in one account.

It starts with your Flagship ID card.

Simply present your card any time you need travelers checks and you won't be charged a fee.

Or whenever you're in the market for a new or used car, your Flagship Account will entitle you to a 5% interest rebate on your Marine Bank auto loan.

When you need extra cash for an emergency expense Flagship covers that, too. With the Lifesaver feature of your Flagship Account, you can write yourself a loan, just by writing a check.

And for everyday expenses you'll have 24-hour access to cash with a TYME card, and instant acceptance all over the world with Master Charge and VISA.

See your Marine Banker.

So instead of getting socked with a service charge, come on over and see a Marine Banker about opening the account that gives you no service charge checking and more... the Flagship Account. Only at the Marine.

Improved Pitching Key to Success in '80

by Manager George Bamberger

Give us improved pitching, a healthy Larry Hisle, and the continued offensive and defensive performance we've displayed in the past, and I think we'll be right in the thick of the Eastern Division race in 1980.

Offensively, you can start with Gorman Thomas, the AL Home Run King (45), Sixto Lezcano (.321, 28 HR, 101 RBI) and Ben Oglivie (.282, 29 HR, 81 RBI) in the outfield. Add to that the return of Hisle (.290, 34 HR, 115 RBI in '78) and the reliable Dick Davis (.266, 12 HR, 41 RBI), and we're pretty strong out there.

Cecil Cooper (.308, 24 HR, 106 RBI) and Paul Molitor (club record .322 BA and 16 Triples) anchor the right side of the infield. Robin Yount, Sal Bando (now a player-coach) and Don Money handle the left side. Jim Gantner (.284) is available for backup duty at all four infield spots and this kid could start for several teams. Charlie Moore (.300) and Buck Martinez (.270) give us fine starting catching and Ray Fosse provides outstanding backup help.

Mike Caldwell (16-6, .727 winning mark best among AL starters) and Billy Travers (14-8) give us two solid southpaws in the rotation, along with right-handers Jim Slaton (15 wins), Larry Sorensen (15 wins) and Moose Haas (11 wins). I think improvement from both Sorensen (15-14), who was 18-12 in '78, and Haas, who pitched much better the second half of the season when he discovered his arm was all the way back from his '78 injury, could mean the difference between second and first place in the division.

Bill Castro (3-1, 2.03 ERA, 6 SVS) and Jerry Augustine (9-6, 3.45 ERA, 5 SVS) give us a good right-left combination in the bullpen to start with. Veterans Reggie Cleveland, Paul Mitchell, Bob Galasso, Andy Replogle and Southpaw Bob McClure will also be on hand, battling rookies David LaPoint, a southpaw who averaged 10 strikeouts per game in the California League, and Rene Quinones (10 wins and 5 SVS at Double A), along with three key right-handers acquired in trades.

Dan Boitano, acquired a year ago in spring training from Philadelphia, led the Pacific Coast League in saves (18) and was impressive at the end of '79. John Flinn, a promising right-hander in the Baltimore organization, was acquired for Lenn Sakata in December. Dwight Bernard, 16 saves in the International League, came to Milwaukee last fall in a trade that sent Pitcher Mark Bombardier to the New York Mets.

Mark Brouhard, the MVP of the Texas League, where he hit .350 with 29 HR and 107 RBI before Milwaukee acquired him in the Winter Professional Draft from California, and Billy Severns, a left-handed outfielder who hit .318 at Triple A, could also stick.

◀ A Gold Glove winner in '79, Sixto Lezcano's statistics back up Manager George Bamberger's claim that he is "the best rightfielder in the American League."

▶ Cecil Cooper's Gold Glove last year adds credence to his all-round ability that also includes a .306 average, 57 homers and 238 RBI in his 3 years in Milwaukee.

The Manager

"Someone once said a manager can win 15 games a year. Don't believe it! Managers and coaches don't play. They're either too old or they don't have the tools. They're there for constructive criticism and to get the maximum out of each individual. Some can and some can't. The ones that can, win." George Irwin Bamberger practices what he preaches. Since taking over the Brewer reins in 1978, Bambi has given Milwaukee its first winning baseball team since the Brewers arrived in 1970, and his record (.582, 188-135) is the third best in the major leagues in that brief span. Having earned several Manager of the Year honors in 1978, George is shooting for all the marbles in what could be his final season before retirement.

George Bamberger "Bambi"

The Coaching Staff

Manager George Bamberger feels he is blessed with "the best coaching staff in baseball" and it is really hard to argue with his statement. Harvey Kuenn is the veteran on the staff, entering his ninth season as the club's batting instructor. Calvin Coolidge Julius Caesar Tuskahoma McLish, in his fifth season with the Brewers, is known as much for his name as he is for his knowledge as an excellent pitching coach. Big, hard-working, energetic and likable are all words that describe 6'7", 300-pound First Base Coach Frank "Hondo" Howard. Now in his fourth year, Howard is Bambi's outfield coach and the man who runs practice and pregame workouts. Bob "Buck" Rodgers, third base coach, and Larry Haney, bullpen coach, are both in their third season as Milwaukee coaches. Outstanding receivers in the big league, their knowledge of being part of the game as catcher is a big reason for their success as coaches. Sal Bando has also been added to the staff as a player-coach this season, helping with the infielders.

In the past decade, only one American League player slammed more homers in a season than Gorman Thomas did last year when he won the A.L. Home Run Title with 45. He broke 11 club records in 1979, including the homer, RBI (123), and walks (98) marks. Sports Editor Bill Dwyre of THE MILWAUKEE JOURNAL summed up Thomas' style when he said: "Milwaukee doesn't like phonies and Thomas is anything but. When he rams a wall running down a fly ball and it hurts a little, or a lot, he gets up as fast as he can. Theatrics are not part of the Gorman Thomas style."

Named the Brewer MVP by the local baseball scribes, Sixto hit .321 and slammed 28 homers on his way to setting a club record .573 slugging mark. He was third in the league with a .420 On Base Percentage and he topped the team with a .334 clutch hitting average. "When he's playing right field, he's the finest," said Brewer Coach Frank Howard of the Gold Glove Outfielder. "He hits the cut-off man with such accuracy, few try taking the extra base. His range and strength are unmatched. He's got all the tools."

A first-time Gold Glove winner last season, Cooper also tied for the American League lead with 44 doubles and 16 game-winning RBI. He has hit .300 or better four out of the last five seasons, including the last three seasons. He hit .383 with runners on base. "He does so many things well," offered Manager George Bamberger. "He can field and run, and he is a superb hitter. He can go for the long ball, or punch the ball the other way and go for the base hit. He does what the situation calls for."

Called by Detroit Tiger Manager Sparky Anderson "the most exciting young player in the game today," Paul Molitor can indeed do it all. As a second year player, he set Brewer records with a .322 batting average and 16 triples last year, while also topping the team with 188 hits and 33 steals. The 1979 recipient of the Harvey Kuenn Award for hitting excellence, Molly "does so many of the little things that don't show up in the box score — such as taking the extra base or bunting for a hit and getting a rally started," according to Manager George Bamberger.

Ben set a club record for home runs by a left-hander when he slammed 29 last season. Because of stats like a .340 clutch hitting average from the seventh inning on and 9 homers in that same span, Manager George Bamberger said about Ben, "In the ninth inning, he's our man. He gets a lot of big hits for us, especially when the chips are down." Ben batted .429 last September, including a span when he hit .667 with an .882 slugging mark to earn A.L. Player of the Week honors. He also swung the bat a .337 pace against left-handed pitchers.

His 16-6 record gave him a .727 winning percentage — the top mark in the league last season for any starter. The current holder of six club records, Mike has been one of baseball's most productive pitchers the past two seasons with 38 wins. "He's a battler," noted Manager George Bamberger. "A real bulldog. When they made up the word 'competitor,' they must have had this guy in mind." Iron Mike started well with a club record 25 straight scoreless innings early in the year, and he finished strong with a 10-1 record in his final 16 starts.

Although he's only 24 years old, 1980 is his seventh season in the big leagues. "When he came to his first spring training at 18 years of age, he wasn't very strong," noted Brewer Batting Coach Harvey Kuenn. "But he's really built up physically the last couple of years and he's grown mentally as a hitter." Robin's fielding has continued to improve, as he made only six errors in his final 64 games last season. He hit .281 after the All-Star break, topping the year off with a .316 mark in September.

A healthy return to the lineup by Larry Hise could make opposing pitchers shudder when they take the mound against Milwaukee in 1980. A torn rotator cuff muscle shelved Hise for all but 26 games last year, but a return to his 1978 form when he batted .290 with 34 homers and 115 RBI would be just what the doctor ordered. "Larry Hise is a guy who will walk up and down the dugout and encourage every teammate," commented Bud Lea, MILWAUKEE SENTINEL Sports Editor. After an off-season exercise program, Brewer fans are hoping for a chance to cheer Larry Hise once again in 1980.

Returning to the Brewers after a year with the Tigers, Jim proved to be Mr. Consistent once again. "You can always count on Slaton to give you double figure victories and 200 plus innings," noted Manager George Bamberger. Those qualities are one reason Jim tops the Brewers All-Time Top Ten in seven categories, including wins (87), complete games (69), strikeouts (779), and shutouts (19). Improvement in his control (2.2 walks per nine innings) and reduction of his gopher ball (he didn't allow a homer in his final 34 frames) were the main reasons for his 15 victories.

Among the league leaders in complete games, starts, shutouts, wins and innings last year, Lary Sorensen is another reason the Brewers have one of the best starting rotations in baseball. "He's an outgoing youngster with a good attitude," said Manager George Bamberger. "He's a competitor. Mike Caldwell, his road roomie, has helped him develop his mental toughness." A gregarious 24-year-old, Sorensen has had an opportunity to practice his broadcasting major at Michigan in the off-season by working at WTMJ-TV, the Brewer flagship station.

An intelligent student of the game, Buck Martinez hit a career high .270 last season, which included a .301 mark from May on. After the All-Star break he hit at a .330 clip, although his major contributions came from behind the plate. "I'm finally starting to realize how smart Buck is," noted battery-mate Larry Sorensen. "I'm starting to hit the spots he calls for." A former Kansas City Royal, Buck enjoys hitting against his old teammates (.412 last year). He gunned down 42 per cent of the runners who attempted to steal when he was behind the plate.

Coming off an injury-plagued season, Don Money is expected to be a key part of the Brewers again in 1980. "There aren't enough words to tell you how valuable Don is to this club," according to Manager George Bamberger. Now in his eighth year with Milwaukee, Don tops the team in seven categories on the All-Time Top Ten list. "His attitude is something that many of the young athletes of today would do well to emulate," noted Sports Columnist Bob Wolf of THE MILWAUKEE JOURNAL. "One man who doesn't get enough credit for the astonishing rise of the Brewers is Don Money."

With three arm operations and five years of experience behind him, Billy Travers is looking forward to perhaps his finest season in 1980. He had his best winning percentage last year (.522) based on his 14-8 record and his walks average of 2.2 per 9 innings was his career best. "When Billy Travers is in the groove, he throws as well as anyone," Manager George Bamberger said. "Having left-handers like Mike Caldwell and Billy as starters is important if we want to win the Eastern Division. Some of our toughest competition's power is from the left side."

Continuing to improve offensively and defensively the past three seasons, Charlie Moore is beginning to come into his own at the age of 26. His offensive output has seen him average .271 the last three years and .286 the past two, finally reaching the .300 mark last year. "He can do so much offensively," noted Brewer Coach Buck Rodgers, a former major league receiver. "He can hit with men on, steal a base, go from first to third. He's probably the fastest catcher in the majors". Manager George Bamberger goes a step further: "He's one of the best clutch hitters on the team."

Charlie Moore

CATCHER

If Moose Haas lives up to his potential, the Brewers could have an Eastern Division flag flying over County Stadium when the season is over. "He's got tremendous potential," said Manager George Bamberger. "He could be another Jim Palmer-type pitcher before his career is over." A fireballer, Moose fanned 14 Yankees two years ago to set a club record. He finished strong last season, coming off an arm injury the year before. He was especially tough under the lights last year, finishing with a 9-5 record.

Called "the ultimate of a veteran leader" by Sports Editor Bill Dwyre of THE MILWAUKEE JOURNAL, Sal was named a player-coach this past winter. However, when he is not coaching the Brewer infielders, he will find time to pick up where he left off last season, when he batted .282 after the All-Star break and batted .305 in clutch situations from the seventh inning on. Still a fine contact hitter, Bando struck out only three times in his final 85 at bats in 1979. A four time All-Star, he is playing his fourth season in a Brewer uniform.

"We call him 'Sweetness' because his swing is so sweet," said Cecil Cooper about teammate Dick Davis, a key part of Bambi's Bombers the past two seasons. In addition to setting personal highs in six areas, including homers (12) and RBI (41), Dick hit .287 in clutch situations. "He makes good contact and he's going to drive in some runs," said teammate Larry Hisle. "If a man is in scoring position, Dick will drive him in." Dick had 83 per cent of his hits and homers occur in clutch situations.

A player who has played all four infield positions during the season and who has worked out behind the plate and in the outfield, Jim Gantner is the ideal "utility" player. "Besides being a good ballplayer, he's a good kid. I really like the way he goes about his job," said Manager George Bamberger. "He gives 100 per cent and that's all I expect." A left-handed batter, Gantner batted .284 last year, hitting a remarkable .353 on the road. A native of Fond du Lac, Wisconsin, Jim is one of two Wisconsinites on the Brewer roster.

Jim Gantner "Gumby" INFIELDER

A local favorite from Kewaunee, WI, Jerry Augustine was the ace of the Brewer bullpen last season, winning nine games and saving five in his first full year as a fireman. As a result, "Augie" earned the Brewers Rolands Relief Man Award for 1979. "Jerry has the perfect arm for the bullpen," said Manager George Bamberger. "He needs very few pitches to loosen up and he can work several times a week. Last year's experience in the bullpen should give Augie what he needs to be a top reliever." Jerry, who was 5-1 at home last season, had a 2.88 ERA as a reliever.

Get year 'round lawn care with a versatile
SNAPPER... Mows... Bags... Vacuums...
Mulches... Shreds.

Easily installed, inexpensive accessories make SNAPPER walk mowers more versatile so you not only have a superior mower, but also the ability to bag, vacuum, mulch cuttings or shred leaves.

A Mulcherizer converts a SNAPPER to a mulching mower so your cuttings become lawn food and you don't have to rake or empty a bag. But unlike one-function mulching mowers, when your grass gets too tall or lush for mulching, your SNAPPER can be returned to a superior bagging mower.

SNAPPER®
Mowers • Tillers • Tractors

By adding a Snapperizer to your SNAPPER, you convert it to a leaf shredder and lawn vacuum so you can go over four times as far without emptying the catcher.

With a Zip Kit, you can empty cuttings directly into plastic trash bags.

You also have the choice of a large capacity rear catcher; six forward speeds on rear-wheel-drive, self-propelled models; 19" or 21" cutting width, and; 3, 3½, 4 and 5 HP engines. See your local SNAPPER dealer, the Yellow Pages or write:

Entering his sixth season as a member of the Brewer bullpen, Bill Castro is the man who throws the double play ball. "If I need a ground ball in a tough situation, then Bill Castro is the man I go to," stated Manager George Bamberger. The 26-year-old native of the Dominican Republic has topped the club in ERA the past two years with marks of 1.81 and 2.03, respectively. Bill led the team with six saves, the fourth year in a row he earned at least that number. He topped the team with the best home run ratio, allowing one gopher ball every 22 innings.

PITCHER

Bob earned five wins and five saves out of the pen last season, topping the Brewers with an average of 6.5 strikeouts per nine innings. "Bobby can really fire the ball," said Manager George Bamberger. "When he entered the game, he allowed only 26 per cent of the runners on base to score — tops on the team and an important stat for a reliever. It's important to have that left-hander in the bullpen and Bobby fills that role."

This veteran catcher gives the Brewers one of the most talented and deep receiving corps in baseball. An 11-year veteran, Ray has seen limited action the past two seasons. "I really respect the man," Manager George Bamberger said. "He has kept himself in shape and he is ready to play when we need him. He has done an excellent job under difficult circumstances." The 33-year-old Fosse is still an excellent handler of pitchers and a student of the game.

A comeback by Reggie Cleveland could give the Brewers the veteran right-hander in the bullpen to go with Bill Castro. He earned four saves last year, with his longest stint being 6.1 innings. "Reggie has worked hard this winter and he is coming to camp raring to go," said Manager George Bamberger. Cleveland has 92 major league wins, 52 coming in the American League.

Manager George Bamberger has been after Paul Mitchell for the past two seasons, finally obtaining him from the Seattle Mariners last June. "He has an outstanding curve ball," noted Bambi. "If he works hard, he could step into our starting rotation if someone falters." Mitchell, a former Oriole, fanned six batters per nine innings and walked only 1.2 per game. He was 3-3 in 18 games with Milwaukee.

A 28-year-old fireballer, Bob saved 3 and won 3 games last year, averaging close to 5 strikeouts per game. "He can bring the ball in harder than anyone on the staff," said Catcher Buck Martinez about Galasso, who had a 2-0 record with a 3.66 ERA against the tough Eastern Division. After returning to the minors for a brief stint last spring, Bob returned to the big club and compiled a 3.03 ERA after June 27.

The Brewers are hoping that Dan, a highly thought of relief pitcher, can give Bill Castro some righthanded help in the bullpen this season. "He topped the Pacific Coast League in saves," said Manager George Bamberger, "and I liked the way he went about his business when he came up here in September." He allowed only 1 run in 6 innings, while fanning 5 in 5 big league appearances last fall.

Although he appeared in only 58 games, Dwight was second in the International League with 16 saves last season at Tidewater. "He did a good job at Triple A when they switched him to the bullpen," said Brewer General Manager Harry Dalton. "We feel he could be a factor with us right now." Bernard averaged 5.6 hits and fanned 7.2 batters per game at the Triple A level.

Scoreboard Data

The most recent facelifting at County Stadium, through the efforts of the Milwaukee Brewers, is the world's most advanced electronic scoreboard system, installed and operating in April, 1980. Manufactured by Omega Electronic, the scoreboard system includes a giant 29' x 63' matrix screen, located on an 82' x 92' frame in right center field, that will provide live action, replays, slow motion, animations, out-of-town scores and game-in-progress information. The entire system includes more than 32,000 40-watt light bulbs. The main scoreboard develops 16 shades of gray to provide spectators with the finest black-and-white picture of its type available anywhere. The matrix system is completely compatible with network television and can accommodate live transmissions and all tape sizes currently being used in television.

"Another pitcher who has tasted success at the Triple A level, we feel he can help us," noted Manager George Bamberger. Exiled in the minors because of Baltimore's deep pitching talent, Flinn averaged almost 7 strikeouts per game. He was 14-10 with 11 saves and a 3.47 ERA at Rochester for three seasons.

The MVP of the Texas League, Mark Brouhard just missed winning the Triple Crown as he led the loop with 107 RBI and 28 homers, while finishing second with a .350 batting mark. "He is as close to being a pure power hitter as there is," said Ray Poitevint, Director of Scouting and Player Development. "He's done just about everything possible that can be done in the minors."

Billy has batted over .300 three straight seasons in the minors, including a .318 average with 15 steals at Triple A last year. "He can play all three outfield positions and he could be the lefthanded hitter coming off the bench that we're looking for," said Manager George Bamberger. A good contact hitter, Billy averaged only 1 strikeout every 43 times up last year and had a .423 on base percentage.

Look who switched to Natural Light.

Mickey Mantle switched to Natural Light...for taste.

He could tell there was a difference, but had no idea that Natural Light's great taste comes from using only the finest natural ingredients.

Or that there are no chemical additives or artificial ingredients in Natural Light, unlike some other light beers he had tried.

We don't think he even read our ingredients that are listed right on the label: Water, Barley malt, Rice, Hops, Yeast.

But when it comes to taste, a slugger like Mickey Mantle sure knows how to pick 'em.

Natural Light.
Taste is why you'll switch.

The First Decade

PATIENCE

PAYING OFF...

TOMMY HARPER — base stealer supreme

1970

Thanks to the dedicated efforts of Milwaukee Brewers, Inc., an organization formed by Allan H. "Bud" Selig and Edmund Fitzgerald several years earlier to return major league baseball to the city, the Seattle Pilots' franchise was acquired April 1st... "We're Big League Again," proclaimed banner headline in the MILWAUKEE SENTINEL... Team renamed "Brewers," a popular name in Milwaukee and a tribute to the city's long association with the brewing industry... The Brewers, managed by Dave Bristol, acquired Russ Snyder and Max Alvis in their first trade on April 4th... Brewers' first game played at County Stadium on April 7th before 37,237 enthusiastic fans, as Lew Krausse dropped 12-0 decision to Andy Messersmith and Angels... John O'Donoghue defeated White Sox in Chicago on April 11th for team's first win ever... Bob Bolin fanned 10 as Brewers earned first home win on May 6th over Red Sox... Davey May acquired from Orioles in June... Kubiak drove in 7 runs, still a team record, at Fenway Park on July 18th... 69-year-old Milt Mason, as

"Bernie Brewer," went into trailer atop stadium scoreboard in late June, vowing not to descend until team drew home crowd of 40,000, which occurred on August 16th... Harper became only fifth player in history to hit more than 30 homers and steal more than 30 bases during same season with totals of 31 and 38, respectively... Danny Walton, an early season sensation, became hero of "Brew Crew," a young, enthusiastic group of fans who populated the left field bleachers... Brewers drew 933,690 and finished tied for fourth with 65-97 record.

1971

Famous Frank "Trader" Lane replaced Marvin Milkes as Director of Baseball Operations... Team won first season opener on April 7th, a 7-2 win at Minnesota behind Marty Pattin... Brewers defeated Angels in rare Saturday afternoon home opener, 4-3, before 40,566... Johnny Briggs acquired from Phillies in May... Bill Parsons named Rookie Pitcher of Year... Ken Sanders appeared in 83 games, winning 7 and saving 31 others, and was named Fireman of the Year by SPORTING NEWS... Pattin, Sanders, Skip Lockwood, and Jim Slaton led a staff which pitched 23 shutouts, but team batting average of .227 was lowest in majors as Brewers finished in cellar with 69-92 mark... Brewers made blockbuster deal during World Series, trading Harper, Krausse, Pattin, and minor leaguer Pat Skrabale to Bosox for George Scott, Jim Lonborg, Ken Brett, Joe Lahoud, Billy Conigliaro, and Don Pavletich... With shift of Washington franchise to Texas, Brewers moved to Eastern Division for 1972 season.

KEN SANDERS —
Fireman of the Year in '71

1972

Brewers completed worst season ever, finishing in basement with 65-91 record... Player strike, which delayed opening of season, unusually bad summer weather, and performance of team all contributed to record low attendance of 600,440... Team involved in 22-inning marathon against Twins on May 12th, a game in which Infielder Bob Heise batted a record 10 times... Dave Bristol fired in late May... Del Crandall, popular ex-player in Milwaukee, took over... Skip Lockwood hurled a 1-hitter against Yanks on May 30th in Crandall's managerial debut... Jim Wilson appointed Director of Baseball Operations in October, replacing Lane... Don Money, Bill Champion, and John Vukovich acquired in off-season from Philly.

1973

Season opener delayed four days after 13-inch snowstorm blanketed city... In most exciting season to date, Brewers put together 10-game winning streak in June, copping 15 of 16 during this span to occupy first place as late as June 19th... "Even The Rain Can't Stop The Brewers" trumpeted a JOURNAL headline after rain-shortened win during streak...Team's new winning ways electrified Brewerland as Milwaukee cracked the million mark for first time with season total of 1,092,158...On night when Brewers won 10th straight, Milwaukee fans rattled Don Newhauser so much with their wild cheering that the Boston hurler walked in three straight runs...That game marked the beginning of the boisterous, deafening verbal attacks on opposing pitchers for which County Stadium crowds are now famous...New Bernie Brewer, Bonnie Brewer, and organist Frank Charles made their debuts as fun atmosphere pervaded the stadium...Spirited play of rookies Darrell Porter, Bob Coluccio, and Pedro Garcia, who finished second to Orioles' Al Bumbry in rookie balloting, sparked team...Davey May and George Scott both hit over .300...May had club record 24-game hitting streak...Johnny Briggs collected club record 6 hits at Cleveland on August 4th...Jim Colborn, who hurled a 1-hitter against Texas, became Brewers' first 20-game winner...After Brewers defeated his Tigers, Manager Billy Martin made his infamous remark: "If the Brewers can win with what they've got, I'm a Chinese aviator!"...Milwaukee, which was only one game below .500 on August 31st, was hurt by lack of consistent relief pitching and September swoon, to finish with 74-88 mark.

ROBIN YOUNT —
18-year-old starter in '74

1974

Record of 76-86 was the best to date, but inability of veterans Scott, May, Colborn and second-year-men Coluccio, Porter, and Garcia to duplicate '73 performances hurt...Tom Murphy became bullpen ace with 10 wins and 20 saves...Robin Yount became Brewers' regular shortstop at 18 years of age...Don Money played 87 consecutive errorless games at third...Popular Mike Hegan reacquired...Deron Johnson purchased from A's in June...In most exciting game of season, roaring, cheering County Stadium crowd so unnerved Rollie Fingers that relief ace allowed game winning runs in 9th, prompting Oakland announcer Monte Moore to wildly exclaim, as the winning run crossed the plate: "The Crowd Did It! The Crowd Did It!"...Royals' Steve Busby hurled no-hitter at County Stadium on June 19th...Jim Baumer appointed Director of Baseball Operations, replacing Jim Wilson, who took over as chief of Major League Scouting Bureau.

1975

Baseball's home run king, Hank Aaron, returned to Milwaukee...48,160 saluted Aaron on "Welcome Home, Henry" Day...Aaron's presence and good start by team helped increase season attendance to 1,213,357...Brewers tied for league lead as late as July 5th but finished at 68-94...Milwaukee hosted major league All-Star game as 51,480 see NL win, 6-3...Boston's Rick Wise hurled 8 2/3 innings of no-hit ball on July 2nd at County Stadium before Scott ended Wise's dream with homer...The Boomer finished with 36 homers and 109 RBI, the former tying him with Reggie Jackson for the HR title, the latter giving him RBI crown...On final day of season, Brewers announced that Crandall's contract would not be renewed.

GEORGE SCOTT — 5-time Gold Glove winner

1976

Alex Grammas, named manager because of winning tradition, acquired from champion Reds...Brewers finished in cellar, however, with 66-95 mark...Henry Aaron closed out illustrious career with 10 homers...Aaron's 10th inning game-winning homer against Rangers in July prompted County Stadium curtain call...40,383 turned out in September for Aaron night...Mike Hegan hit for cycle against Detroit on September 3rd...Billy Travers, an All-Star, won 15 games and Jerry Augustine named to All-Rookie team...Looking for leadership in off-season, Brewers acquired Sal Bando in first Re-entry Draft...Scott and Bernie Carbo traded to Boston for Cecil Cooper...Porter and Colborn dealt to Royals...Pitcher Danny Frisella killed in off-season accident.

DAVEY MAY — hit .303 in '74

1977

Season began with high hopes as Brewers won Cactus League title and 11 games during April...Bumper crowd of 55,120, still a record, turned out for Opening Day in sunny 83 degree weather...Mike Caldwell acquired in June trade with Cincinnati for two minor leaguers...Team finished with disappointing 67-95 mark...Don Money hit 25 homers and drove in 83 runs in best major league season...Cecil Cooper became team's first .300 hitter in four years...In November, Brewers acquired Larry Hisle in Re-entry Draft...Next day, in "Saturday Night Massacre," team let go Jim Baumer and Alex Grammas...Harry Dalton named to replace Baumer, and George Bamberger, pitching coach of Orioles, appointed field manager two months later...Brewers traded Slaton to Tigers for Ben Oglivie.

1978

Brewers were the talk of baseball world as they posted 93-69 record, fourth best in baseball and good enough for third in tough AL East...Brewers unveiled new pinstripe uniforms and new team logo...Milwaukee batters hit three grand slam homers to sweep opening series against Orioles..."Bambi's Bombers," a power-packed wrecking crew, led AL in homers with 173 and topped the league in six other offensive categories...Brewers finished 10-5 against World Champion Yankees, sweeping all eight games in Milwaukee...In memorable evening, Brewers swept two-night twinbill against Bronx Bombers at County Stadium on June 28th behind route going performances by Caldwell and Augustine...Money becomes first Brewer ever voted into starting lineup for mid-season star game...Hisle and Larry Sorensen also named to squad...Brewers swept three-game series against Yanks with Hisle's game-winning homer off Rich Gossage, the highlight of the season...Team wins 10 straight in June to make believers out of doubters..."Bring On The Red Sox, City Is Ready" blared SENTINEL headline, as Brewers sold out in advance for August series against Bosox...Caldwell won 22 games to become first pitcher since Dean Chance in 1964 to blank Yanks three times in one season...Moose Haas fanned 14 Yankees in single game...Selig named Executive of Year...Bamberger named Manager of Year...Dalton received General Manager of Year honors...Paul Molitor named Rookie of Year...Caldwell named Comeback Player of Year...Yount, Hisle, and Molitor named to post-season all-star teams...Brewers named top state sports story by AP and UPI...1,601,406 passed through County Stadium turnstiles...Jim Slaton reacquired in Re-entry Draft.

GORMAN THOMAS — 1st Pilot drafted; came of age with Brewers the past two seasons

1979

"Brewer Fever" swept city and state as 1,918,343 jubilant fans streamed into County Stadium...Brewers finished in second place behind Orioles with 95-66 mark, the fourth best in baseball..."Bambi's Bombers" continued to bomb as Gorman Thomas crowned AL home run champion with 45 round trippers...Ben Oglivie belted 29; Sixto Lezcano, 28; and Cecil Cooper, 24...Larry Hisle, injured most of season, appeared in only 26 games...Oglivie and Cooper each belted 3 homers in a single game...Cooper's third circuit clout was a game winner against Yankees on July 27th off Gossage and necessitated a curtain call, as 48,000 fans roared their approval...Molitor hit club record .322 and collected club record 16 triples...Cooper, Lezcano, and Moore joined Molitor in hitting .300 or better...Ten-date homestand against Yankees, Orioles, and Red Sox drew 408,547...Overall, Brewers cracked 20,000 mark 43 times; the 30,000 mark, 25 times; the 40,000 base, 12 times; and the 50,000 plateau, 4 times...Brewers' streak of 212 straight non-shutout games was broken on final day of season against Twins...Non-shutout streak of 103 games at County Stadium, however, still was intact...Brewers again named top state sports story by wire services...Brewers picked to win division in 1980 in some pre-season polls.

MIKE HEGAN, BOB UECKER, LORN BROWN

Lorn Brown (right) joins the Brewer announcing team in 1980 after four successful seasons with the Chicago White Sox. A veteran of 20 years in the broadcasting business, Lorn joins Bob Uecker (center) in the radio booth and Mike Hegan (left) in the television booth. "Ueck" begins his ninth season as the veteran of the team, having also gained fame from his stints with ABC on Monday Night

Baseball and NBC's Tonight Show. A former major leaguer like Uecker, Hegan begins his third full season with the Brewer TV Network. A 10-year veteran, Mike had one of his biggest moments in a Milwaukee uniform when he became the only Brewer ever to hit for the cycle on September 3, 1976.

About the Artist

GEORGE POLLARD is the portrait artist of the Brewers. He is one of the few living artists who has done portraits from life of three presidents — Truman, Eisenhower and Kennedy. He is considered one of the nation's most respected artists and illustrators. During the past several years Pollard has used his talents to capture the personalities of sports figures in charcoal, creating likenesses so compelling and real you can almost feel their presence and vitality. He calls them Sportraits.®

Starting as a combat artist with the Second Marine Division during World War II, over the years Pollard has drawn and painted portraits of people in all walks of life — movie and television entertainers, captains of commerce and industry, Supreme Court justices, cabinet members, ambassadors and galleries of ordinary people.

A lifelong Wisconsin resident, Pollard was born in Waldo and now lives with his family in Kenosha.
